Dear Ms. Amiya,

SUSPENSION OVER EXAMINATION MALPRACTICE DURING SEMESTER I 2024/2025 ACADEMIC YEAR EXAMINATIONS.

On Monday 10th February, 2025, Senate received and approved business from the 1st Session of the 52nd Senate Examinations Committee Meeting on Examination Malpractice cases for Semester I 2024/2025 Academic Year. A report was presented indicating that on 3rd December, 2024, during MMS 2103: Organizational Behavior Examination, you were found in possession of unauthorized material in the Examinations Room contrary to;

Section 8.18(a) "smuggling of unauthorized materials in any form into the examination room" of the Examination Regulations for the Award of Bachelor Degrees, Diplomas and Certificates of Kyambogo University.

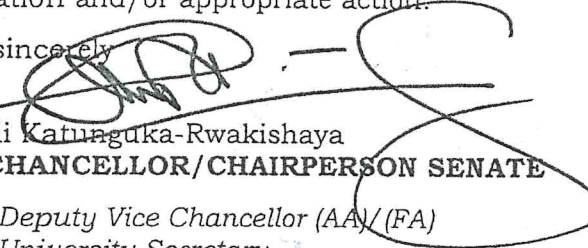

Senate resolved as follows:

- (i) To cancel your examination results for MMS 2103: Organizational Behavior Examination and allow you to retake the course when next offered.
- (ii) To suspend you from the programme for two (2) consecutive semesters starting with Year 2 Semester II 2024/2025 Academic Year.
- (iii) To allow you to resume studies in Semester II 2025/2026 Academic Year as year 2 student.

As Chairperson, on behalf of the University Senate, this communication is to cancel your examination results for MMS 2103: Organizational Behavior; suspend you for two (2) consecutive semesters starting with Year 2 Semester II 2024/2025 Academic Year and allow you to resume studies in Semester II 2025/2026 Academic Year as a year 2 student.

By copy of this communication, the under-mentioned are hereby notified for their information and/or appropriate action.

Yours sincerely

Prof. Eli Katunguka-Rwakishaya
